February 2022

I went into a shoe store last month to buy a pair of boots. I was amazed at the variety of footwear that stretched out before me along aisle after aisle. This store had it all: everything from tennis shoes to work boots. There were steel toe boots, lace up work boots, slip on work boots and rubber boots of various heights designed to be worn from your ankles to your knees. Shoes made from cloth, or leather, or canvas, or rubber were all on display in all shapes and sizes. There were shoes to fit any foot for any application, and yet with all that variety, one great similarity remained. Everything in the store was made to be worn on feet.

Likewise, we humans are found in a variety of shapes and sizes. We come in all colors and ages. We have different functions and jobs and yet one great similarity lumps us all together: We were created to exist in the context of a living, loving relationship with the one who created us. God made mankind for him. The distractions of life will often misdirect our focus and lull us into believing the lie that “I am the center of my world.” But nothing could be further from the truth. You and I were created for His Glory and to be a blessing to others. As we seek to honor the Lord, He will guide us toward a strong relationship with Him and others. We might all be different from one another, but we have one Lord and Savior. Praise be to Him.

Believing and Belonging, Bro Rick
